G. SHERRILL, JAIL ESCAPE, CAPTURED

Sheriff Jones and Deputy Shaw Caught Negro in Woods Near A. & M. College—Injured Foot Doubtless Prevented him From Getting Farther Away.

Sheriff B. E. Jones and Deputy J. H. Shaw yesterday afternoon arrested George Sherrill, one of the negroes who escaped from the county jail on Wednesday night. The negro was arrested on a stretch of woods just beyond the A. & M. College.

The officers were notified that a crippled negro had crossed the road and entered the woods and they lost no time in getting on his trail. They entered the woods and followed in the direction he was going when seen. Near the center of the woods they saw him sitting on the banks of a branch with his feet hanging into the stream as if he was resting preparatory to crossing. It was getting dark in the woods and it was merely good luck, the officers state, that caused them to run directly upon him.

Sherrill did not offer resistance and was at once brought back and placed in jail. He stated that he did not lead the charge on the cell bar and the wall of the jail, but merely followed the other negroes out. He said Clarence King, a large, heavy set negro, did the sawing and digging necessary to obtain freedom. As the coast was clear he followed, the negroes helping him over the plank fence that surrounds the jail yard. As soon as they got outside the negroes separated and he did not know where the remainder went. He went down Green street and came back up the hill, spending the remainder of the night in a bunch of woods west of the city. Thursday he traveled eastward and skirted around the city, spending Thursday night in the tabernacle building on East Market street.

Sherrill got along by the use of improvised crutches that he had picked up after getting outside the jail. He had been hobbling about a good deal and it appeared that his injured foot was giving him some trouble because of its rough treatment for the past two days. The remaining five negroes have not been heard from. Sheriff Jones yesterday sent out posers giving descriptions of the negroes to officers in the surrounding towns. It is believed that the negroes made for Virginia and the officers in Virginia towns have been notified to be on the lookout.

SECOND CONVENTION STATE B. Y. P. U. CONVENES APRIL 18 AT STATESVILLE

Statesville, March 31.—The second annual Baptist Young People's Union Convention of North Carolina, which will be in session at the First Baptist Church of Statesville April 18-20, will be a gathering of no little importance to the Baptists of the State. Among the speakers for the occasion are some of the most prominent Baptist leaders of the South and it is expected that a large number of delegates from all sections of the State will be here to avail themselves of the opportunity to hear them. The first convention of the kind, which was held in Durham last year, was well attended and now that the Baptist young people of the State are better organized the convention here will be more largely attended. The visitors will be the guests of the Young People's Union of the First Baptist Church while here and Mr. Charles E. Scherch, chairman of the entertainment committee, is now receiving the names of delegates and assigning them to homes. Delegates are requested to send in their names as early as possible.

The convention will open on the evening of Tuesday, the 18th, with devotional exercises by Dr. W. R. Cullom, teacher of Bible at Wake Forest College, after which the assembly will be called to order by the State President, Mr. J. Powell Tucker, of Wake Forest College, and the delegates and other visitors will be enrolled. The address of welcome will be by a member of the local Union yet designated and after the response by some visitor, Dr. W. L. Pocat, president of Wake Forest College, will deliver an address on "The Appeal of the Kingdom to Christian Heroism." This will be followed by a statement of the object and aims of the convention by Mr. L. P. Leavell, of Oxford,

DEBATE

Deciding Contest for Chamber of Commerce Cup Scheduled for April 17th. When Representatives of Davidson and Wake Forest Meet in Annual Debate.

The annual debate between representatives of Davidson College and Wake Forest College will occur here Monday, April 17, or on Monday night after Easter.

The second contest was in 1910, being won by Davidson. The winner of this year's contest will be given the cup, so that the approaching debate is of deep interest in Davidson and Wake Forest College circles and among the friends of the two institutions.

TWO YEARS FOR PISTOL TOTER

Wilmington Recorder Gives Negro Long Sentence For Carrying Pistol.

Wilmington, March 31.—The Recorder continues to give evidence of the fact that Mr. Pistol Toter will not have smooth sailing in his court, when the testimony discloses the guilt of the defendant. Chas. Fowler, colored, one of the alleged highwaymen who was found guilty at Wednesday's session of carrying a concealed weapon in two cases, was yesterday sentenced to two years on the county roads, 12 months in each case. Fowler's pal, Council Stanley, was sentenced at Wednesday's session to nine months on the roads for carrying concealed weapons.

The case against Fowler for assault with deadly weapon on Wise Merritt, colored, late Saturday night, was investigated yesterday morning. The evidence showed that Fowler was not guilty of this charge and the case was dismissed. Fowler and Stanley will be tried in Superior court next week on the charge of highway robbery and if convicted will probably draw a long sentence, which, added to what they already received, will keep them in the employ of the county for some years.

JUSTICE O'GORMAN ELECTED SENATOR

Deadlock at Albany Broken by Compromise Candidate—Elected on 63rd Joint Ballot—Justice O'Gorman Acceptable to Murphy and Insurgents.

The vote on joint ballot was O'Gorman, 112; Depew, 80.

O'Gorman was a new candidate and was placed in the contest as a compromise candidate late this afternoon, following a caucus of Democrats in which he was accepted by the insurgent members of the party.

Justice O'Gorman was acceptable to Charles F. Murphy and Tammany as a compromise candidate to break the deadlock.

BIG-OUTBREAK IN MEXICO IS FEARED SUNDAY

Mexico, March 31.—The minor disturbances about the city have served to keep the people under high tension, but so far the authorities have quickly handled such trouble. Last night a train load of rurals, bound for the lighting company's power plant, 100 miles from here, was fired by a band as it was leaving the rural section. The rurals promptly dispersed the men and the train proceeded on its way.

The affair is made light of officially, but there is a reason for this, it is believed by many. The main anxiety is felt about Sunday as there is a persistent rumor that an outbreak will most likely occur.

Taft to Know the Real Conditions Along the Border

San Antonio, Tex., March 31.—Before Congress convenes on next Tuesday President Taft will have at his disposal a huge mass of data and official reports on conditions along the Mexican border, this being taken to Washington tonight by Col. Luther T. Ellsworth, American Consul at Portofino Diaz across the river from Eagle Pass, who came to San Antonio last night. Col. Ellsworth, who is also a special agent of the department of justice, at once got busy and all day there was unusual activity in the offices of the federal officials here. Stenographers were working at breakneck speed getting the reports in shape.

Col. Ellsworth declined to say why he had been called to Washington or whether the information he was gathering was to be laid before the department of state.

TONS OF FOOD FOR CHINA SUFFERERS

Hundreds of Tons Food and Medicines for South China.

Shanghai, March 31.—The American transport, Buford, sailed today for Chinkiang to make a first distribution of twelve hundred tons of food and medicines sent by the people of the United States for the relief of the famine sufferers in southern China.

The relief work is being thoroughly and systematically organized and it is believed that the active work which will soon be under way will prove effective in relieving to a great extent the sufferings of the populace.

REORGANIZATION OF THE RAILWAY MAIL SERVICE

Washington, March 31.—Postmaster General Hitchcock tonight began the reorganization of the railway mail service by making a dozen changes in the most important offices. Theodore Ingalls, superintendent of rural mails, becomes general superintendent of the railway mail service at $4,000 per year, succeeding Alexander Grant, who has been transferred to St. Paul as division superintendent at $3,000. George G. Thompson becomes superintendent of rural mails, being succeeded by Charles B. Anderson.

Posses Close After Kidnappers in New Mexico

Las Vegas, New Mexico, March 31.—With posses close on their trail and bloodhounds almost at their heels four bandits are spurring their horses over the prairie to escape the clutches of the law, after having carried to a successful culmination the boldest kidnapping expedition in the history of the southwest.

The bandits have in their possession $12,000 in cash, paid to them last night by A. T. Rogers, a wealthy attorney of this city, in order to secure the safe return of his two year old child secured from his mother Wednesday night at 11 o'clock. The bandits prevented the mother from making an out cry by holding a pistol at her head while other members of the party made away with the child. The bandits are headed towards the Oklahoma line, but it is believed that they will soon be captured.

Disbrow won the race, the time being three hours, 53 minutes and 33 seconds.

FLYER

Will Navigate the Air in Greensboro—Lincoln Beachy in Curtiss Biplane to Give Exhibition Flights April 7th at the Fair Grounds—Will be Spectacular Event.

Frank Herbst, representing the Curtiss Exhibition Company of Hammondsport, N. Y., and New York City, was in Greensboro yesterday and arranged for some "high flying" to take place here next Friday, April 7.

The aviator who will give the exhibition here is Lincoln Beachy, who is said to be one of the best air navigators in the business. He is at present at Pinehurst, where the millionaire sojourners at that resort have been enjoying his flights. Beachy goes from here to Knoxville, Tenn., where one of the greatest aviation meets in the South is to be pulled off the next week after his flights in Greensboro.

Beachy will fly in a 60 horsepower 8 cylinder Curtiss type bi-plane, three flights to be given, the weather permitting. The first flight will be reasonably high with a number of dips and curves. The second flight will be a bomb dropping contest, and the fourth flight will be for the benefit of those who desire to take a ride in the machine. Mr. Herbst requests that all persons desiring to make a flight with Beachy write him at once, care the Guilford hotel.

Mr. Herbst stated last night that the contract had been made for the exhibition to be given in the fair grounds. This he stated was an ideal spot for such exhibitions, the fences being so arranged that there was plenty of room for the machine to be brought to a point where all could see the mechanism when the machine starts to rise. The fence also would keep the people from getting where there would be any danger in case of an accident. The flights will be given between the hours of 3:30 and 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

BROKE AEROPLANE RECORDS.

Paris, March 31.—Traveling at an average of 91 miles an hour Aviator Pierre Vedrine covered 206 miles in a Morane monoplane today and broke all previous aeroplane speed records. Leaving Poitiers at 6:15 a. m. he travelled to the aviation field at Issy near Paris, alighting at 8:29 a. m. Several times he was blown out of his way by a heavy wind or otherwise would have made a still better record.

CONTRACT LET FOR ROAD INTO VIRGINIA FROM WINSTON-SALEM

Charlotte, March 31.—To build the proposed interurban line between Winston-Salem, and Floyd, Virginia, a distance of 102 miles, the Propst Contracting Company of this city has secured a contract from the North Carolina Traction Company.

Approximately $2,000,000 is involved in the contract, and in the expenditures to follow another million dollars will be used for equipment, etc.

Opening up a new territory now without railroad facilities the line that is to connect North Carolina and Virginia is a matter of more than passing interest. The contract awarded the Charlotte firm is the largest one ever handled in the two states.

Through the territory to be traversed there is a fortune, it is said, in virgin timber, such as oak, poplar, walnut, hickory, and pine. There is on the survey a tract of coal deposits of 30,000 acres and immense rich iron-ore deposits that were once worked some years ago when the Virginia and Southwestern Railroad and the Virginia Iron, Coal and Coke Company first started operations. It will also develop a district that possesses large deposits of mica, and will pass through a great tobacco and apple-raising country. All apples—and there were more than 300,000 barrels shipped from one county in Virginia last year—have now to be hauled from 20 to 80 miles in wagons in order to reach a market.

The line will have no competition and will serve, it is estimated, 270,000 people within five miles of its roadway. It penetrates the foothills of the Alleghany and the Blue Ridge Mountains, mounts their heights and passes to the North with a clear grade not exceeding

JOINT COMMENCEMENT OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Innovation Introduced in Wayne County—Charles B. Aycock One of Speakers at Goldsboro—High Point Man Delegate to Political Science Meeting.

Raleigh, March 31.—State Superintendent of Public Instruction J. Y. Joyner and ex-Gov. Charles B. Aycock went today to Goldsboro for the first joint commencement exercises for all the public schools of a county ever held in this state, this being the date for the closing of the Wayne county schools. Both these distinguished men delivered addresses. It was an all day affair with a picnic dinner. The best students from all the schools of the county had places on an especially attractive program that included declamations and a great variety of school contests that excited the keenest competitive interest. There was an exhibit of school work in connection with the affair that demonstrated strikingly the character and standard of work done by the Wayne schools.

Superintendent Joyner says there will be a number of similar events for other counties this season and he expects to see a very general movement in this direction for the next school year. Randolph county holds such an event at Asheboro April 8 and Sampson county celebrates in like manner at Clinton April 28. There are other counties preparing for celebrations this spring.

Making Provisions For the Hens.

The contract is let and work under way out at the State Fair grounds for the new poultry building that is to be 64x150 feet equipped with granolithic floor, special light and ventilation arrangements and other modern arrangements. The building is to be ready for the next fair in October. Secretary Pogue says that the indications are that the poultry division of the fair will be especially popular this year on account of the wonderful increase of interest in poultry raising among the people of both the country and the towns.

The railroad is to be completed within two years after work begins and the contract awarded the Propst Contracting Company provides that it shall do the grading, track-laying, build bridges, trestles, culverts and other work. FAIR IN NEW HANDS.

Junius H. Harden, Formerly Secretary of Mecklenburg Fair Association, Has Management of Alamance Fair—Planning Fair That Will Be Second to None in the State.

Burlington, March 30.—Mr. Junius H. Harden, originator of the North Carolina circuit of fairs and former secretary of the Mecklenburg Fair Association, again has the management of the Alamance fair, and is, at this early date, devoting the greater part of his time and attention to the work of securing attractions and entries, which, he claims, will make the Greater Alamance Fair rank second to no county fair in North Carolina. He now has ready for the printers copy for a five-thousand edition of a one-hundred-page premium list, which is to be distributed to prospective exhibitors during the months of May and June.

Mr. Harden and associates have taken over the management of the fair from the stockholders, and among the stipulations of the contract they are to pay premiums which are due exhibitors at former fairs held here.

THE GREENSBORO TELEGRAM

Published Daily Except Monday at 208
South Davis StreetJ. T. FAIR - Editor.
H. G. BRAXTON, - Business Manager.

The Telegram's Phone is No. 59.

The Telegram is entered at the Post-office in Greensboro, North Carolina, for transmission through the mails as Second Class Matter.

MEN REASON WHEN RIGHT; FIGHT WHEN WRONG.

Three men went to the office of the Lexington Dispatch this week with the intention, they declared, of "licking" Editor Henry B. Varner. It happened that the three arrived at about the same time, but all had separate grievances. It is said that all the signs pointed to war in the vicinity of the Dispatch office for a while, but a policeman was called and the belligerents dispersed.

The Telegram is not in possession of the facts in the case, but it is said the irate Lexingtonians were aroused over publications made in the news columns of the Dispatch, which apparently reflected on them; but the published account of the war scare indicates that the three are not men bearing the best of reputations. The point of the whole matter, however, is that if the Dispatch published the truth and the truth was legitimate news, the Lexington paper was justified in its course. Those who know Editor Varner believe that he publishes a trustworthy newspaper, and that if a mistake had been made in this case a correction would have been forthcoming. Therefore, the three men were clearly not justified in their efforts to do him bodily injury.

It is the publishing of the truth in newspapers having the courage of their convictions and standing squarely on their rights as purveyors of the news, which causes incidents similar to that in Lexington and which often result in far more serious affairs. They do not result from printing misinformation or errors in handling the news. Men will ask for correction of errors and will direct the attention of the newspaper to inaccuracies, but when the unpleasant or offending truth, the truth that bites and stings and brands them as rascals, as law breakers, as demagogues, or as scoundrels of some other hue, is published they are driven in their blind rage and desperation to efforts to do bodily injury or to take life.

It was the publishing of the truth which caused Duncan B. and Robin J. Cooper to take the life of Edward S. Carmack. If the published statements had been untrue they would have been corrected. In fact, if there had been no basis of truth for these statements, they would never have appeared in print. It was the truth—the truth about old man Cooper's rascality and misdeeds and about the dirty political methods of him and his crowd—the truth, the force of which could not be dispelled and from which there would be no receding or retraction on the part of Carmack, which drove the Coopers to the only method a desperate and degraded man can conceive of as a last resort in such a case—the resort of taking revenge by taking life.

The Carmack case is but one. It may be used as an illustration.

Newspapers that deal honorably with the public are not conducted in a spirit of malice toward any individual or class, either in handling the news or in their editorial policies. It is often necessary to publish matter which the paper would prefer to ignore and leave out of its columns, if this could be done without destroying or impairing its functions as a public journal. Much matter of which the public never hears is left out of the newspapers, and the papers get no credit for this, while they are censured for publishing matter which offends some individual or class.

It is the purpose of the honest newspaper to deal fairly and frankly with the public and with individuals; and there are few newspapers which cannot be reached by courteous suggestion or request, in cases where an error has been made or an unintentional injustice done. It is rarely ever necessary to resort to force to secure reasonably decent treatment from a newspaper. Newspaper men are very similar in their characteristics to other human beings; and in this enlightened age and civilized country it is hardly ever necessary to deal with the average business man or law abiding citizen according to methods in vogue in the dark ages or in heathendom.

If the public will bear in mind that the newspaper man is human and that he is just about like the average business man in other lines, it will not be necessary to threaten him with bodily injury to secure fair treatment and justice.

The case of the man who is in the wrong, however, in his quarrel with the newspaper is different. If the newspaper is right and has the courage to stand pat, then there is likely to be trouble. Nine times in ten this will be found to be the exact status of the affair in which it is detailed that somebody has, or has tried to, "lick" the editor.

The editor may get "licked," occasionally. He may be murdered, as was Carmack. That does not weaken or destroy the eternal truth for which the editor is contending. Carmack is dead. The cause for which he fought lives and marches on.

The Coopers made the only answer the man in the wrong ultimately gives to the condemnation and the lashings of the truth—the answer Force has made to the demands of Justice in all the ages of the world. They forcibly deprived the exponent of righteousness of the God-given right to live. What a puny, contemptible act it was; what wailing, halting, Cain-like answer it was to the thunderous demands of Justice.

Yet, it was characteristic of the conduct of men who have done wrong and who have been accused and condemned at the bar of public opinion and who, for revenge, turn and take the life of the prosecutor.

Such is the character and the manner of nine-tenths of the men who have pitched a quarrel with the editor.

WHAT NORTH CAROLINA EDITORS ARE SAYING.

Whooping 'Em Up.

If a match was needed to light the fuse or a torch wanted to start the bonfire, why Hon. E. J. Justice, of Greensboro, has supplied it. In a thunderous article in the Raleigh News and Observer quadruple column in width and headed in glaring manner "Democracy Must Be Progressive and Democratic" he has thundered, and the peals and repels will be heard for some days to come. It was all needed to fill in the gap in the evidence presented to show that politics in North Carolina, especially Democratic family politics, are already war and will warm-up as they go along, too. Mr. Justice is nothing if not fearless. Some may call it foolhardy, but you can always place him, and that's some benefit—to the people. However, we do not take any stock in his running for Senator, or if he does run of his being a very formidable opponent. But it is not as a candidate that his utterances must be considered. In his somewhat fiery declarations he construes progressive Democracy to mean standing by the principles of the Democratic party and adhering to platform pledges. The last is certainly a vital, glaring truth. No party should make pledges and then not fulfill them. Why make them? Be honest. If certain things are not believed in, don't promise them to the people. That is the gist of the entire matter, and it is going to play a vital part in the welfare of all parties in future. Mr. Justice believes in the people ruling, and he is eminently correct on that point. But whatever his giant sized card doesn't accomplish, it is going to make the fur fly. Just you watch.—Wilmington Dispatch.

Kitchen For The Senate

If ex-Governor Aycock can not be induced to enter the senatorial fight, why not the Progressive Democrats center on the Hon. Claude Kitchin as their candidate? He is one of the ablest and strongest Democrats in Congress, the people have confidence in him, and after his election he would stand on identically the same platform he did before being elected. In other words, he's the kind of Democrat that will stand without hitching or watching, and that's the kind North Carolina Democrats ought to send there to represent our great Commonwealth.—Madison Herald.

OUT OF THE POORHOUSE.

A Pathetic Incident of Life in an English Village.

"Opposite my home," writes a correspondent of the Westminster Gazette from an English village, "are two cottages which for some time stood empty. A few weeks ago two old people from whom the paper disqualification had been removed came slowly up the long hill and with trembling fingers unlocked the door and entered. A piece of paper very soon appeared to act as a screen across the window. We saw very little of the old people, but there were signs of what was happening inside. Before long a little white curtain replaced the paper. After dark no light appeared in the cottage. It takes time to furnish with an old age pension. One night as I drew down my blind a gleam of light caught my attention from over the way, and the picture I saw will remain with me for long. There in the middle of the room was a lighted lamp, and the two old people, with clasped hands, stood gazing up at it in silent delight. They must have had more creature comfort in the workhouse, but there was no pride of possession there and they could not be together either. But the pathos of it—beginning life at seventy!"

ORDEAL OF THE NEW RECRUIT

The Initiation of an Embryo General.

The officers of the —th hussars were profoundly moved. Commissions in the regiment had from time immemorial been reserved for the sons of noble men, and now John Hunkins, the son of a retired brewer, had been appointed. There was a babel of voices at the junior mess, all raised in protest against this invasion of a prerogative of the peerage. One man sat quietly listening without a word, but he was a younger son of a baronet who had made money in trade and had been admitted to the sacred circle of titled people because he had given his fortune to the poor.

"It's very easy to get wid of these common intruders," said Lord Hartley. "All we have to do is to freeze 'em out."

"Just so," assented the Hon. Mr. Maxcey.

"But suppose their beggarly natures are too obtuse to see what's meant by the treatment we give 'em," put in the Earl of Harrowby.

"In that case," Hartley explained, "we'll appoint a committee to visit their rooms and smash their furniture."

"A very effective measure," remarked the Hon. Mr. Maxcey.

"Trotter," said Hartley, "you don't seem interested in the matter at all."

"I'm not."

"Oh, Trotter's not been one of our kind long enough to be interested!" sneered Harrowby.

"That's just it," replied Trotter composedly.

At this point who should walk into the messroom but the subject of the discussion, a well built, florid young Englishman, with flaxen hair and blue eyes.

"Good evening, gentlemen," he said, taking a seat and helping himself. "I'm glad to be one of you."

There was a dead silence around the board for some time, during which Hunkins was satisfying his appetite. The silence was broken by the Hon. Mr. Maxcey. Turning, he brought his monocle on the newcomer and said:

"I say, isn't your father a brewer?"

"He was," replied Hunkins imper-

turbably.

"Well, then, why didn't he bring you up to the business?"

"Isn't your father Lord Bunglered?"

"Yes."

"Well, why didn't he bring you up to be a gentleman?"

Some of the mess smiled, but those who had been most active with their tongues then and there resolved that the brewer's son must be frozen out.

But Hunkins appeared to be too obtuse to see their intentions or too good natured to notice them, and they resolved upon more strenuous means. A committee went to his quarters and smashed some china ware which he greatly prized. The next evening he visited the quarters of three men he suspected and smashed whatever he could find that was easily breakable.

When the officers of the junior mess assembled for dinner that evening there was a worse hubbub than when they had discussed the new appointment. In the midst of it in walked Hunkins.

"Gentlemen," he said, "I've been obliged to retaliate for the breaking of my china without being sure of the man who did it. If I have made any mistake I'm ready to apologize and replace what I have damaged. If not I'm ready to give satisfaction after dinner on the tankard in the riding hall."

It appeared that he had made no mistake, for Hartley, Harrowby and Maxcey, whose articles he had broken, all claimed the privilege of knocking him out. Hunkins undertook to satisfy these gentlemen in the order named. He had good muscle and was a fine boxer. Hartley was soon put out of the fight, but Harrowby was not so easily disposed of. Hunkins had need for all his skill and endurance. He finally knocked out the noble lord, but when he had done so he was next to knocked out himself. The best man of his three enemies still remained.

"Beg pardon," said Trotter, stepping forward. "It wouldn't be becoming of us as gentlemen to permit a newcomer among us to fight three men on the same evening. I'll take Mr. Hunkins' place with Mr. Maxcey."

"There's no quarrel with you, Trotter," Hartley protested.

"Certainly not," said Harrowby.

But Englishmen respect courage, and the others present thought that Hunkins in fighting two men had done all that could be expected of him. Maxcey proved that he was not disposed to take advantage of a wounded adversary and consented to meet the substitute. The fight that followed was a long one. The disputants were evenly matched, and neither could get the advantage of the other. When it was found almost impossible after the twentieth round for either to come up to the scratch the fight was declared off, and the incident of smashed furniture was a thing of the past.

And so was the objection to Hunkins. He had won his way into the most aristocratic regiment in the British service by simply pursuing a straightforward course. Hunkins is now a general, having won his principal promotion during the Boer war. Trotter has long been a member of parliament and at one time held a seat in the cabinet. Hartley and Maxcey were killed in battle, and Harrowby, who has succeeded to the title, is living on his estates.

(17.) To what extent was Naaman either right or wrong in being angry at the scant courtesy shown him by Elisha?

(18.) Verses 13-14—Why, under circumstances, was it natural that these servants should be better judges of Elisha's instructions than their master?

(19.) Why are sinners generally more willing to do some hard thing, than they are to comply with God's easy plan for their salvation? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

(20.) Verses 15-17—Did Naaman do right in offering a present and did Elisha do right in refusing it, and why?

(21.) Verses 18-19—What reason is there to think that Naaman was truly converted?

(22.) Did Elisha approve of Naaman waiting upon his master, the king, while the latter was engaged in idolatrous worship?

(23.) Verses 20-27—What is your view of the sin of Gehazi and its swift punishment?

Elisha's Heavenly Defenders. 2 Kings vi: 8-23.

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

HOT air is apt to be explosive, but it is injurious only to those who had taken stock in the company limited.

The poet says it is not always May, and nobody disputes him at this season of the year.

Parting is sweet sorrow, but it is nothing to meeting—a creditor face to face.

The world judges a man by what he does, a woman by what she wears.

A woman's idea of a clever woman is one that can trim her old hat so that it will look like those in the windows of the exclusive shops.

The old fashioned woman was delighted with a new Sunday school program, but it takes a new uplift movement to enthuse the modern woman.

The man who is sure he can solve the servant girl problem doesn't explain why he doesn't try the plan on his office force.

The man who knows he can't pick a winner often reflects on the law against gambling.

If a girl were really as pretty as her mother thinks her the police would have to break the blockade every time she went down town.

When a young man starts out to win the price of an auto on the board of trade a car fare looks good to him in the end.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for kidney ills.

People in this vicinity testify to their worth.

Mrs. Brown, College Street, Randleman, N. C., says: "Kidney trouble has been a stranger to me since I was cured by Doan's Kidney Pills three years ago. At one time I was made quite miserable by this complaint and although I used any number of remedies, I did not get permanent relief until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. The contents of several boxes cured me. I shall always recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, for I know that they can be relied upon to bring relief from kidney complaint."

A FUNNY FRENCHMAN.

The Brand of Humor With Which He Made Paris Laugh.

M. Sacha Gutry, who is the son of France's foremost actor, M. Lucien Gutry, is one of the funniest men in Paris.

He lives from morning till night in an atmosphere of constant joking. If his watch has stopped he rings up a number chosen at haphazard in the telephone directory. "What time is it?" he quietly asks. The person at the other end is so taken aback that he gives him the time. "Thanks," says Sacha Gutry; "that's all I wanted to know," and rings off again. The other day he shocked some stiff and starch friends who were taking him for a motor drive in the Bois by gravely saluting all the people he passed like a sovereign. "Why do you do that?" asked his friends. "I want to increase my circle of acquaintances," he answered.

There was a time when on the staircase of the flathouse he occupied at a pretty good height one saw a board just a few steps from his own landing showing the encouraging announcement, "M. Sacha Gutry—five stories more." The trick having become public property, he replaced the notice by another: "Don't hurry. I don't like people out of breath. I would rather wait for you another five minutes." When on his wedding day the maire asked him whether he would take Mlle. Lyse for wife he assumed a discomfited air, put his finger in his mouth and only some long seconds afterward deigned to reply to the official, who was growing impatient, "After all, if it will oblige you, I will say yes."—London Tatler.

PATRIOTS PLAY BOSTON NATIONALS

Weather Permitting, There Will be
Some Baseball at Cone Park
This Afternoon.

This afternoon at 3:30 o'clock Doyle's Patriots will meet the Boston Nationals on Cone Park diamond for the first practice game of the season. If the weather conditions are favorable a large crowd will be out to watch the teams play. The admission will be 25 cents.

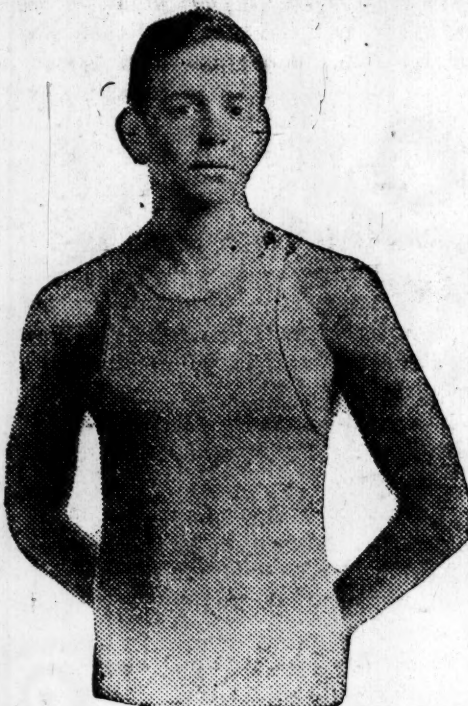

The Greensboro boys have been practicing hard this week, considering the weather and will be able to put up a good article of ball. Stewart of Guilford, who is to try for catcher, will be on hand and will likely divide time with Ware behind the bat. Eldridge, Wallace, Jones and Fisher will be on hand to do the twirling stunts and Eldridge will likely open up. Other players who will be in the lineup are Horner and Lohman, rf; Hoyt and Carroll, lf; Rickard, cf; Fuller, lb; Doyle, 2b; Rea, 3b; Corwin, ss.

The Boston Nationals, the Rustlers as they are generally called, arrived last night from their training camp at Augusta, and are stopping at the Guilford. The team has had a good deal of training and the players should be in excellent playing condition. Several of the players have been drawing cards in big league circles and their actions on the diamond will no doubt be well worth looking at. The line up of the team will be about as follows: Clark or Collins, lf; Cooge, cf; Herzog, ss; Muller, rf; Ingerton, 3b; Sweeney, 2b; Tenney, lb; Graham or Rander, c. The twirler will be selected prior to the opening of the game.

IN THE WORLD OF SPORT

Reilly, Crack Swimmer, After Hebner's Title.

James Reilly of the New York Athletic club, not satisfied with running Charles M. Daniels, "the human fish," a close second in all round swimming in New York recently has become ambitious to defeat Harry Hebner of Chicago, champion in the back stroke. The Mercury Foot man has shown exceptional speed at this style of natation and believes that with a little more practice he can take the measure of the westerner. As Hebner now holds the world's record of 1 minute 56 2-5 seconds for the classic 150 yards distance, a defeat by Reilly would give the latter claim to international supremacy.

Walsh After Weston's Walking Record. Sergeant John Walsh of New York is walking to San Francisco and return in an effort to break Edward Payson Weston's record. Walsh is fifty-eight years old and has been thirty years in the army. He is to receive $2,000 if he succeeds in lowering the transcontinental record. It is his fourth trip across the continent. He says he will follow the southern route. In 1892 he walked from Fort Leavenworth to Boston, then to Mare Island in 110 days. In 1898 he walked from coast to coast in 90 days. In his last effort he walked from Salt Lake City to Portland, Me., in 88 days. The distance for the latter trip was 3,600 miles. Weston's record for the round trip from coast to coast is 185 days, 77 days from west to east and 108 days from east to west.

All Nation Baseball Team. The Cosmopolitan club of the University of Pennsylvania, composed of students from all sections of the world, more than twenty nations being represented, have decided to form a baseball team for the coming season. S. T. Kim of Korea is the manager of the team. Not more than one man will be allowed from any one country. The Chinese students are endeavoring to get S. T. Yang, one of their number, on the team.

Curling Trophy Valued at $1,200. The Canadian Life curling trophy represents the single rink championship of Toronto and is open to all members of clubs in that city. It is a gold cup valued at $1,200. It becomes the property of the club winning it most times in twelve years. Queen City has won it three times—J. C. Scott in 1907, H. A. Haisley in 1908 and R. Rennie in 1909. Granties have won it twice—W. E. McMurtry in 1906 and T. Rennie in 1910.

Iowans Organize to Preserve Game. Iowa sportsmen organized at Des Moines the Polk County Conservation and Sportsmen's association, having for its object the preservation of the lakes and forests of Iowa, restocking of the fields and waters of the state with game and fish and the establishment of an efficient game warden system.

Sutherland Creates New Polo Record. Kid Sutherland, the former Hartford roller polo player, who is now with the New Haven team and leads the national league as a goal tender, created a new world's record in making stops in a game at Worcester with 106. The former record was 98, made by Big Bill Bannan of Harvard in 1909.

Gray is Youthful Billiard Expert. George Gray, the youthful Australian billiard marvel now playing the English style of game in England, has up to date made eleven breaks exceeding 1,000 points. At Nottingham recently he made two world's records in the same match, first with a break of 1,200 and then with 1,818.

Wireless Chess Between Liners. Two games of chess have been played by the aid of wireless telegraphy between the two liners the Briton and the Medric in midocean, each winning a game. Among the players on the Briton was Rear Admiral Bush, commander in chief, Cape of Good Hope.

Doyle Signs With Chicago. Jimmy Doyle, the recruit from the Louisville club of the American association and who is expected to give Harry Steinfield a battle for the position of regular third baseman on the Chicago Cubs, has signed his contract for 1911.

Be Sure It Is A Cable

Unscrupulous piano salesmen and tuners of this section have not the ability or enough of the confidence of the public to dissatisfy a Cable owner. We are glad to have salesmen or tuners open Cable pianos and show the customer any defects of the instrument. It is scientifically constructed and any purchaser will see that it is a piano built to last a lifetime.

We have never had any complaints from a purchaser of a Cable piano that they had found broken strings or glue that the manufacturer had left in the piano; neither do we find tacks, as the Cable action is not tacked together. The unscrupulous piano men of this section have never been able to dissatisfy the owner of a Cable piano.

Hunting the Thimble. Last spring Mrs. Albert Tomlin of Atlantic City, N. J., went to visit her father and mother, who live on a farm near Tuckerton, and one day the chickens got into the kitchen garden. She was sewing, but she ran to chase them out, and when she had got the last chicken where it should be she found that her silver thimble was lost. She hunted all through the garden, but she could not find it. That is chapter 1. Chapter 2 opens in the winter time, and Mrs. Tomlin is seen making pumpkin pies. The pumpkin that she used in this chapter of the story had been sent to her from her father's farm. She cut one of them open, and as the pieces fell apart out dropped a silver thimble. It was the one she had lost. She thought that the fairies must have been at work, but after awhile she came to the conclusion that the thimble had fallen from her finger into a pumpkin blossom as she chased the chickens and that the pumpkin had grown around it.—Chicago News.

Philathea Reception.

The Philatheas of the Christian church gave a reception in the basement of the church last evening, there being nearly a hundred in attendance. The committee in charge had arranged a most delightful program, consisting of recitations and games, these being followed by a course of refreshments.

The young ladies and gentlemen were separated when all had arrived and the young women were placed one by one behind a curtain so her shadow would fall on the curtain. The young men on the opposite side of the curtain had been supplied with stage money and the shadows of the young ladies were auctioned off, the shadows bringing from $15 to $150. After all had been sold the young lady bringing the highest price and the successful bidder were arrayed as bride and groom, with the usual attendants and a mock marriage ceremony was performed. After this there was a question contest which proved most enjoyable.

After the games Miss Cain, of the W. C. A., and Miss Schenck, of G. F. College, and Rev. Mr. Smith recited.

SENATOR OVERMAN FOR RECIPROCITY WITH CANADA

Winston-Salem, March 31.—"Passing the reciprocity treaty between the United States and Canada and a revision of the tariff on the most important things affecting the cost of living will be the important matters before the special session of congress, which convenes next Tuesday."

Thus spoke Senator Lee S. Overman, of Salisbury, who arrived in the city last night, leaving this afternoon for home. He will go to Washington tomorrow to attend the Democratic caucus Saturday night and plan for the work to be enacted at the special session.

"I am not in favor of a general revision of the tariff at this special session," continued the junior senator, who stated that he thought this work should be left to the regular session which convenes in December. By that time he believes the general revision can be done more systematically and scientifically.

Reduction in the tariff on wool and steel, especially all farming implements—in fact all things necessary for the home and farm will be made, in opinion of Senator Overman. He expects to see farming implements and cotton bagging and ties go on the free list.

Senator Overman admitted that the reciprocity treaty was not drawn as he would have written it, "but I regard it a step in the direction of what I have been advocating on the stump and elsewhere for years, and I propose to vote for it—hoping that we can get something better later." The Senator is an earnest advocate of an interchange of trade with other countries and he sees in the present proposition a wise movement for both the United States and Canada.

Senator Overman does not think there is any doubt about the reciprocity treaty being passed at the special session, provided of course too many amendments are not attached to it before it comes to the senate. "It would have passed at the recent session had it come to a vote," said the Senator. He expressed the opinion that not more than six Democratic senators would have voted against it.

Senator Overman expressed the opinion that congress would be able to conclude its work by the first of June, provided the reciprocity treaty and the revision of the tariff as outlined by him were the only matters taken up. "If we go into a general revision of the tariff we will likely be in session all summer," he said.

Mrs. W. E. Coffin

Died Suddenly

Friday Morning

Her many friends throughout the city and state will regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Lucy J. Coffin, wife of W. E. Coffin, which occurred suddenly yesterday morning at her home on South Ashe street. Paralysis of the heart was the cause of death. Mrs. Coffin was 59 years of age.

The funeral will be held from West Market Street Methodist church, of which the deceased was a loyal member, this afternoon at 4 o'clock, conducted by the pastor, Rev. E. K. McLarty. The interment will follow in Green Hill cemetery, the following acting as pall bearers: W. B. Devlin, C. H. Ireland, E. J. Stafford, M. W. Sterne, J. C. Pierce, E. A. Brown.

Mrs. Coffin arose yesterday morning, apparently in usual health. She stated about 7:15 o'clock that she would not come down to breakfast and her husband on entering the room a few minutes afterwards found her cold in death.

The deceased before marriage was Miss Cook and was born near Montgomery, Ala. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cook, moved to Jamestown soon after the war where she lived until her marriage to Mr. Coffin. Of this union five children survive, Arthur G. and W. E., Jr., Miss Mary Coffin and Mrs. I. F. Peebles, of this city, and Mrs. W. G. Ragsdale, of Jamestown.

ENDEAVORERS OF STATE IN SESSION

Burlington, March 31.—The annual meeting of the State Union of Christian Endeavor began this afternoon in the Christian church, there being a large attendance of delegates from all parts of the state. The movement has grown considerably during the past year and more societies are represented than at any previous meeting in this state. Other delegates are expected on the morning trains. The Greensboro societies are well represented.

The convention was called to order at 4:30 o'clock by President Harper and the first service was a "quiet hour." This was an unusually impressive service and prepared the delegates for the enjoyment of the services to follow.

Tonight Rev. C. H. Hubbell, of Adrian, Mich., secretary of the Young People's work in the M. P. church, made an able address on "Atlantic City, 1911." He aroused the Endeavorers to a sense of the responsibility resting on them in the work of securing the million new members before that time, urging all to have a share in the work. Rev. J. H. Peele, of Guilford College, also made an able address, speaking on "World-wide Fellowship." "Reaching the Reached and Saving the Saved," was the subject of a highly interesting address by Dr. J. O. MAKE LIFE WORTH LIVING

Says Elder Cunningham.

When pure healthy blood courses through every vein and artery of the body, the organs are in a healthy condition, and a strenuous, active life is a pleasure to man or woman.

But if the blood is impure and sluggish, the appetite poor, digestion weak and vitality not up to the standard, life is a burden; then you need Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, without oil. Such evidence as comes from Henry Cunningham, elder of the Baptist Church, Kingston, N. C., should be convincing. He says, "I was run-down and weak from general debility, and suffered from vertigo. I took Vinol with the most gratifying results. I gained in health and strength and now feel unusually well."

Elder Cunningham's recovery was due to the combined action of the medicinal elements of cod's livers, aided by the blood making and strength creating properties of tonic iron contained in Vinol.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. Fariss-Klutznick Drug Co.

Good results always follow the use of Foley Kidney Pills. They give prompt relief in all cases of kidney and bladder disorders. Try them. Howard Gardner.

TOWN PLANNED ON PROPOSED RAILWAY LINE

Shelby, March 30.—Pursuing methods whereby the West was built up with small settlements that later became thickly populated cities, a number of Shelby gentlemen headed by Mr. W. T. Calton have purchased 1,036 acres of fine timber lands in Person county and will lay out a town to be called Calton in honor of its founders. A stock company has been formed by the name of the Calton Land & Lumber Co. with an authorized capital stock of $50,000 and $20,000 paid in. Associated with Mr. W. T. Calton, who are also experienced land and lumber men, are Messrs. J. M. Calton, M. D. L. Calton, R. P. Early, D. W. Early and John R. McClure. The certificate of incorporation was received from the secretary of state this week and plans of developing the large tract of land have already begun.

This concern will put in operation four or five sawmills to work up the five million feet of lumber on the large tract. The town will be laid off and settled up by colonists from various parts of the State. A unique inducement proposition will be made, giving all the colonists that buy a farm a building lot in the new town. The lumber mills will furnish employment to many while farming will be the business of others. The land is fertile and will produce valuable crops.

The reason why this land has remained undeveloped is because there was no market for products. The new town is on the line of the proposed Greensboro, Roxboro and Norfolk Railroad. It is between Roxboro, the county seat of Person county, and the Virginia line. And as soon as Calton is surveyed, the colonization process will begin.

The Sound Sleep of Good Health.

Can not be over estimated and any ailment that prevents it is a menace to health. J. L. Southers, Eau Claire, Wis., says: "I have been unable to sleep soundly nights, because of pains across my back and soreness of my kidneys. My appetite was very poor and my general condition was much run down. I have been taking Foley Kidney Pills but a short time and now sleep as sound as a rock, my general condition is greatly improved, and I know that Foley Kidney Pills have cured me." Howard Gardner.

The Churchwarden Pipe.

Of the development of the clay pipe the London Chronicle remarks: "In their various shapes and sizes the clay pipes of different centuries curiously illustrate the changes in smokers and smoking. The Elizabethan pipes were so small that when dug up, as they sometimes are, they are commonly called 'fairy pipes.' But the size reflects the high price of tobacco at that time and also shows that the first smokers, as soldiers, sailors and men of action, wanted a short and handy pipe suited to their habits. The lengthening of pipes toward the end of the seventeenth century was the result not only of Dutch influence under William III., but also of the way smoking was increasing among men of higher social status. The yard long clay pipe would be used only by men of position whose ease and smoke were not to be suddenly and rudely disturbed. The laborer had his short 'cutty,' which he could carry in his waistcoat pocket, but the long clay was meet only for such dignitaries as churchwardens, so that the pipe took the name of its user."

A Reliable Medicine—Not A Narcotic

Mrs. F. Marti, St. Joe, Mich., says: "Our little boy contracted a severe bronchial trouble and as the doctor's medicine did not cure him, I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar Compound in which I have great faith. It cured the cough as well as the choking and gagging spells and he got well in a short time. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has many times saved us much trouble and we are never without it in the house." Howard Gardner.

One Conductor Helped Back to Work.

Mr. Wilford Adams is his name, and he writes: "I was confined to my bed with chronic rheumatism and used two bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy with good effect. The third bottle put me on my feet and I resumed work as conductor on the Lexington, Ky., Street Railway. It will do all you claim in cases of rheumatism." It clears the blood of uric acid. Howard Gardner.

Not Through Talking Rashly Yet.

New York, March 31.—"I believe that to give woman the ballot would bring as great blessing to the world as the coming of Christ, declared the Rev. Charles F. Aked, the retiring pastor of the Fifth Avenue Baptist church.

Will Think Flying Safer.

New Britain, Conn., March 31.—Aviator Charles K. Hamilton tried automobile and got in a bad mix-up with an electric train. Two side wheels of his automobile were torn off and he and his wife and mother-in-law had narrow escapes.

Wanted to Be Care Free.
"Don't you wish you had a lot of money?"
"No."
"You don't?"
"No. Why should I?"
"But think what a time you would have spending it."
"Huh! It'd be almost as much work as earning it."

The Difference.
"I find it is so hard to get my husband started."
"Do you? My difficulty is quite another matter."
"What is it?"
"I find it so hard to get mine stopped."

Evidence.

"What beautiful hair she has!"
"Hasn't she?"
"Is it natural?"
"The dealer said it was."

The Difference.
The worm will turn;
The pancake will not.
No matter how hot,
It will stay and burn.

A Joiner.
"Is your husband a member of the S. B. C. lodge?"
"How old is the organization?"
"I don't know."
"If it has been organized more than fifteen minutes he is in it."

The Test.
"Do you believe in suffrage?"
"Are women capable of citizenship?"
"Why not? They can master political economy."
"But can they understand baseball?"

Flippant.
"The weather is cold."
"The weather?"
"Yes."
"But it doesn't seem to mind at all, though, does it?"

Only Thing That Saved Him.
"He seems rather fond of her."
"Yes; he calls her his life preserver."
"Why?"
"Because she got a divorce from him."

Not Unusual.
There's no use in predicting
Or gazing at the moon.
We may not have real winter
Until the last of June.
We cannot gauge the seasons
Or tell them what to do.
They come when they are ready
And go when they get through.

Not Interested.

"Are you the janitor?"
"Yes."
"When will it be warm in my flat?"
"Madam, I am not a weather prophet."

Remembered Material Things.
"Uncle Rastus, should potatoes be planted in the dark of the moon?"
"I dun forgets, but that is the time to steal watermelons."

Guessed it the First Time.
"John and I are thinking of taking a trip next month."
"Dear me! I didn't know you had a new suit."

At Safe Distance.
I'd like to be a mile away
And using still my legs
When there's a corner to be smashed
In ancient storage eggs.

CURES PIMPLES QUICKLY

Simple Remedy That Clears Skin Quickly of All Eruptions.

For several weeks past Howard Gardner has done the biggest business he ever had in any one article in selling Hokara, the skin food that has won so many friends in Greensboro.

It has been found to be an absolute cure not only for all minor skin troubles, such as pimples, blackheads, herpes, acne, sealy scalp, complexion blemishes, itching feet, piles, etc., but for the worst sores, ulcers, or even chronic eczema and salt rheum.

In spite of its unusual curative power, the price is trifling. To convince every one of its merits, Howard Gardner will sell a liberal sized jar for 25c.; larger sized 50c. And remember that if you do not think it does what it claims, you get your money back. You certainly can afford to try it on this plan.

TESTIMONIAL.

I wish to state for the benefit of anyone suffering from eczema, that I had eczema on my hand for some time and could find nothing that would cure it until I used Hokara. One 25c jar entirely cured me. Wm. Nichols, 311-1-2 Central Ave., Ft. Dodge, Iowa.

Hints For the Busy Housewife

Flank Steak, Mexican Style.
Take three pounds of flank steak scored by the butcher and put in the pan with a little lard or butter. Salt and pepper lightly, then put a layer of onions sliced thin, a little cayenne pepper, then a layer of sliced potatoes. Season with salt and pepper. Take a can of tomatoes and pour over the top. Bake slowly for three hours. About half an hour before taking from the oven cover with a thick layer of boiled rice. Let it get nicely browned. Lift out on a platter and cut through like shortcake.

Potage Clermont.
Boil three-quarters of a pint of white beans in three or four pints of second stock with two small pieces of carrot, a bay leaf, two small onions, two or three cloves, some peppercorns and salt. Let simmer about four hours, stirring occasionally. Then, with the exception of carrot and herbs, pass all through a hair sieve and return the puree to a clean saucepan. Let it boil up, add a pat of butter and lastly a tablespoonful of hot cream. Serve with croutons.

Coffee Macaroons.
Blanch four ounces of sweet almonds, pound to a paste in a mortar and moisten with four teaspoonfuls of very strong coffee. Then add the stiffly beaten whites of four eggs mixed with one pound of white sugar. Shape into macaroons and arrange them in paper lined cases. Bake for ten minutes in a hot oven. These are very dainty indeed when decorated with a small crystallized cherry on top of each macaroon.

Remedy For Burns.
An excellent remedy for a burn is composed of equal parts of linseed oil and lime water. Saturate some medicated cotton in this and bind on the burn, first wrapping the cotton with a bit of thin cotton cloth to prevent bathing adhering to burn. This is also very fine for frostbites.

Poor Man's Pudding.
Four cups of milk, half a cup of rice, one-third cup of molasses, half a teaspoonful of salt, half a teaspoonful of cinnamon, a tablespoonful of butter. Bake three hours in very slow oven, stirring three times during first hour to prevent burning and rice settling.

To Cure Toothache.
The worst toothache or neuralgia coming from the teeth may be speedily and delightfully ended by the application of a bit of cotton saturated in a solution of ammonia to the defective tooth.

DDD STUNTS WITH A WHIP.

Wonderful Feats by a European Master of the Lash.

"I saw a downright novelty on the bill of a European music hall," said a man who spends a bit of his time on the other side. "It was furnished by an Austro-Hungarian, who accomplished some wonderful things with a whip."

"One of his stunts was to take a long lashed, stout handled whip in each hand and, with orchestral accompaniment, proceed to crack or snap them at a terrific rate. The sound made by his whips in this manner is graduated from a noise like a rifle report to the soft click of a billiard ball. It makes a curious sort of music and serves to show how he can regulate the force of each stroke."

"Another feature of his performance is achieved with a vicious looking whip with an abnormally long lash. It is provided with a heavy handle of medium length. This is his favorite toy, and what he can do with it is really wonderful. He first gives an idea of what fearful force may lie in a whiplash in the hands of an expert. There is a large frame shown, over which is stretched a calf or sheep skin. This is marked with dots of red paint. The man with the whip steps up and, swinging the lash round his head, lets fly at the calfskin. With every blow he actually pulls a piece out of the leather, leaving a clean cut hole. These pieces are distributed among the audience to show that there is no trickery about the performance."

"After this he takes a frame with three shelves. On these there are a dozen or more of medium sized apples lying very close together and provided with large numbers. Any one in the audience may designate which apple he wishes struck, and the merrily lashed snatches it out like a flash. A still more difficult feat is the snapping of coins from a narrow necked bottle. A piece of silver about the size of a half crown is put over the cork of the bottle, which stands on the edge of a table. The whip artist, without appearing to take any sort of aim, sends the long lash whizzing through the air and picks off the coin without jarring the bottle, much less breaking it."

Electric Bitters is a priceless blessing to women troubled with fainting and dizzy spells, backache, headache, weakness, debility, constipation or kidney disorders. Use them and gain new health, strength and vigor. They're guaranteed to satisfy or money refunded. Only 50c. at Fariss-Klutznick Drug Co.

NEWS OF SPORTS

GREENVILLE BASEBALL NOTES

Manager Dick Smith of the local baseball club has secured a fine pitcher in F. Morrissey, better known as "Deacon" Morrissey. He was for a number of years in the Virginia League and was looked upon as the best twirler in that organization. He was turned loose this year because of the greatly reduced salary limit.

It is believed that Morrissey will prove the leading pitcher in this league. Local fans are greatly pleased that Smith has secured him.

Sports.

J. F. McFarlin, for three seasons a star member of the local pitching staff, but who was signed by Augusta this season, has been released by Manager Tommie Stouch and will manage the Morristown, Tenn., team of the Appalachian League.

McFarlin made a good showing with Augusta but Tommie had a surplus of good material and was forced to let some one go. The job at Morristown was offered the pitcher and he decided that he would accept so that Stouch gave him his release.—Greenville, S. C., Piedmont.

Baseball Team Is Worth the Money.

"Pluck and perseverance are essentials in the work of fostering the interests and promoting the general welfare of any town or city. Instances are cited in cities of sustaining a baseball club. Morristown lost money—almost $2,000, it is said—on its baseball club last year, yet the business men of that town recognized the worth of a baseball club as an advertising medium, and this year they readily responded with subscriptions to the club amounting to $5,000 for membership in the Appalachian League, of which the Bristol club is also a member. The same is true of Johnson City."

"The city of Danville has had a losing team in the Virginia League for five years, with the exception of one year when the pennant went to that city. The support in the way of attendance has not been sufficient to pay out at the end of the season, but the business men of Danville have rallied to the support of the club, because they know that a league gives a city a certain prestige and attracts to it many people who would not otherwise come."

"These are only two or three instances. Many others could be cited. It usually takes years for a baseball club to become self-supporting, and then only when the attendance is large and expenses at a minimum is a club a financial success."—Bristol, Va., Herald-Courier.

We don't hold it against a man that he is a member of one or more clubs but we look with some suspicion upon a man whose only recommendation is that he is a "well known club man." He would need some other credentials before we would be willing to endorse his note.—Leavenworth, Kan., Times.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

REALITY OF THE AMAZONS.

Relics of Women Fighters of High Rank in Olden Times.

The tradition of the Amazons, a valiant race of women warriors, was a favorite one with the writers and artists of ancient Greece, but it has been generally treated in modern times as a poetic myth. Now comes an interesting archaeological discovery which makes it appear certain that there were indeed women fighters of high rank in the old days.

There was recently unearthed a sepulchre in the part of Italy once known as Etruria in which was found a warrior of bronze and iron and crouching in it the skeleton of a woman. There were about her not only the remains of rich robes and beautiful ornaments of gold and ivory, attesting truly feminine vanity, but also the same weapons which the ancient traditions say the Amazons used in battle. The bronze work and the terra cotta vases definitely fixed the date of the tomb at about 800 B. C.

The earliest accounts of the Amazons located them in the northeast part of Asia Minor, but Etruria was peopled from Asia Minor and had attained a high degree of skill in certain of the arts long before Rome was founded. Such evidence as this tomb affords is more convincing than the pictures of Amazons on the old vases or such legends as that of Queen Penthesilea, who is said to have led 5,000 female soldiers to the aid of Priam in the Trojan war.

"I believe it saved my life," he writes "for it made a new man of me, so that I can now do good work again." Owls Are Anxious to Show The Insurance Man

Charlotte, March 31.—Warrants have been issued by the chief of police against Messrs. J. J. Arlington and J. H. Holland, charging them with soliciting membership in the order of Owls without having first obtained a license from the State of North Carolina. The cases were continued until next Wednesday. No bonds were required. Mr. H. R. Canefield of Birmingham, Ala., and the Owls' attorney, Mr. Samuel H. Kone of Boston, will be here then to thresh the matter out. Mr. Holland said yesterday that he and his superior officer were at a loss to know what to make of Insurance Commissioner Young's attitude and his charge that the supreme secretary had admitted using the death benefit fund for his personal advantage. Mr. Holland thought that Mr. Young must have confused this order with some other. "Our representatives," he said, "are eager to meet any charge that may be made."

Since then my trouble has never returned." Try it.

Gladness comes with a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed and assisted by the pleasant laxative remedy Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna. To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

Do They Practice What They Preach?

We buy for cash and sell for cash, but do our competitors who sell on credit practice what they preach? They preach credit, but when they buy their own goods they practice cash buying. They get a large discount by buying for cash, and they make a long profit by selling on credit. In some stores where they sell for cash or on credit, they will mark a shoe $3.00 for cash or $4.00 on credit, but most of the stores who sell on credit are afraid for you to know that they are charging you $1.00 a pair extra because you have them charged.

Are You Willing to Pay $1.00 Extra to Get Credit?

If you can afford it, go to the credit store, if not, come to us. Remember we sell the $5.00 kind for $4.00 cash, the $4.00 kind for $3.50 cash, the $3.50 kind for $3.00 cash, the $3.00 kind for $2.50 cash and the $2.50 kind for $2.00 cash.

Writ of Habeas Corpus Denied in Moss Case

W. V. Moss is denied a writ of habeas corpus by Judge Pritchard, the decision in the case being handed down on Thursday. Yesterday's Asheville Citizen has the following regarding the case:

"Judge J. C. Pritchard yesterday denied the writ of habeas corpus for the release from the Guilford county prison of W. V. Moss, who recently had a hearing before Judge Pritchard on the charge of impersonating a revenue officer. The writ was denied on the grounds that there was probable cause for the case to be carried before a grand jury.

"It will be recalled that a few weeks ago, Moss played the role of revenue officer in Greensboro, having examined several places while under the spell of a revenue badge, which he is charged with having taken from a print shop in Greensboro. He was arrested and tried before a United States commissioner in that city on the charge of impersonating a revenue officer with intent to defraud, and was sent to jail in default of a $1,000 bond. His attorneys sued for a writ of habeas corpus for his release before Judge Pritchard, who granted a hearing several days ago. The case was left open for further consideration by Judge Pritchard. Meanwhile Moss was taken back to Greensboro by Marshal W. E. Logan.

"It is reported on good authority that the defendant will have to answer to the charge of the larceny of the pin he wore while playing the part of an officer."

Counsel for Moss are arranging bond in the sum of $500 and Moss will likely be liberated on Monday.
